

Child policy

The cork and bottle welcomes your children to our venue but, we do have an exclusion time of 7:30 pm. So please don't be offended if a staff member advises you it's nearing that time.

All children must be under their parent's full supervision at all times and must remain seated while in the venue. Please once again don't be offended if a staff member makes you aware of misbehaving children under your supervision.

Let's make this venue enjoyable for everyone.

Thank you for your understanding,

The Management
